

School Ambassador Program

The School Ambassador program seeks to engage and empower young middle and high school leaders, ages thirteen (13) and over to put their unique skills to use with the purpose of impacting their community. These participants are challenged to activate their own leadership skills, promote the love of philanthropy while inspiring the same characteristics among their peers.

The program consists of attending and participating in various community service projects and assisting with fundraisers to benefit the children served by His House Children's Home.
