Silvia Smith - Torres
Executive Director

His House Children's Home has brought healing and hope to thousands of children and youth across Florida who have experienced abuse, abandonment, or neglect.

Because of partners like you, we are able to provide critical services, create meaningful first-time experiences, and keep large sibling groups together—preserving the bonds that matter most.

Last year alone, we served 498 children and youth in our care. With your continued support, we can keep removing the masks of trauma and uncertainty—strengthening families, building safer neighborhoods, and creating thriving communities where every child has the opportunity to flourish.
